GOPs Predict Truman Plan To Wreck U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Congressional Republicans, eager at a glimpse of President Truman's federal budget, predicted yesterday that the country would go bankrupt if Congress approves the plan.

"A 10-year prosperity program" was how one speaker described the budget proposal. "They want to ruin the country," he said, "and the Republicans are going to stop them." Another said, "We want to make this country a happy country, not bankrupt." A third added, "We are going to put a stop to this program, and we are going to make the people understand what is happening to them." A fourth declared, "We are going to fight this program with every means at our disposal." A fifth warned, "We are going to be just as stubborn as they are, and we are going to win." A sixth commented, "We are going to do whatever it takes to defeat this program." A seventh said, "We are going to make the people understand what is happening to them." A eighth added, "We are going to fight this program with every means at our disposal." ‘Miscarriage of Justice’ Charged

Around Los Angeles recently, television is something common down there, they report, while up here it’s still something you read about in radio.
